Conditions for Permission

1. Permission to publish requires the proper completion, signing, and approval of this form. Until a fully executed copy of this form has been received and approved by The Housing Authority of the City of Atlanta, Georgia ("AHA"), permission is not granted. All requests for publication will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
2. Permission to publish materials obtained from the AHA's Archives is granted for a one-time use only in the medium and format stated in this application. Responsibility for obtaining additional permission required for subsequent publication remains with the publisher of the material.

3. In granting permission to publish materials obtained from its archival collections, AHA does not surrender its own rights. Permission is valid only for the applicant to whom it is specifically issued and may not be transferred, assigned, sold, or otherwise disposed of without written permission from AHA.
4. Materials must be published within one (1) year of the full execution of this permission form or the rights granted herein shall become null and void.
5. Citation shall be given as follows: [identification of items and collection title], Atlanta Housing Authority Archives Collection, Atlanta Housing Authority, Date accessed.
6. In consideration of being granted permission to examine any record on the terms set forth above, the undersigned applicant expressly assumes all responsibility for observing all applicable laws of copyright, property right, and libel. The undersigned applicant also agrees to exonerate, indemnify and hold harmless AHA, its board members, officers, employees, and agents from and against all claims arising out of or in any way connected with the use which the undersigned applicant makes, or permits to be made, of the materials described above. The undersigned applicant assumes all responsibility for obtaining permission from any additional copyright holders, and is subject to any claims under copyright, libel, or other laws that could be made as a result of the publication.
7. AHA may terminate this permission, at its sole discretion and at any time, immediately upon written notice (including via email) to the undersigned applicant.
8. If permission to publish is granted, the undersigned applicant agrees to donate a copy of the completed work to AHA promptly after publication.

I have read and agree to the Conditions for Permission listed above.
