

Relocation Fact Sheet

The Quality of Life Initiative allows families in AHA's remaining public housing projects the opportunity to escape concentrated poverty. This is consistent with AHA's vision of providing eligible families with access to affordable housing while de-concentrating poverty and building healthy communities. The Quality of Life Initiative focuses on 11 of AHA's remaining public housing communities.

AHA is providing comprehensive relocation support for affected families.

AHA will work closely with Atlanta Public Schools and other community stakeholders to provide responsible relocation that will ensure choice, support and successful outcomes for each family. To that end, families will receive 27 months of intensive human services development pre- and post-relocation as well as housing search, relocation and financial assistance.

Each family will receive intensive human development services that will:

- Support the families pre and post relocation
- Promote successful transition of families to new communities
- Increase self-sufficiency
- Assist in achieving personal goals

The relocation team will provide the families with the tools to make informed choices about their best housing opportunities. Options include:

- AHA high-rise communities (seniors and persons with disabilities)
- Private mixed-income rental communities with a limited percentage of project based rental assistance
- Housing Choice tenant-based vouchers

The relocation team will assist residents in finding their new home, by providing:

- Weekly tours to metro Atlanta properties
- Housing Fairs where metro Atlanta properties show their communities to relocating families
- Housing information located in each property's relocation office
- Transportation assistance such as MARTA tokens and travel to properties

Relocating residents will receive the following financial assistance:

- Moving reimbursements
- Application and holding fees, if applicable
- Rental security deposits
- Telephone, internet or cable re-connection fees
- Contracted AHA movers to move furniture and other items.
- Packing and unpacking services
