

HOUSING CHOICE Overview

AHA's Housing Choice Voucher Program (Housing Choice) offers families including elderly and disabled persons and working families, the greatest mobility and broader range of choice in selecting where they live. Using a Housing Choice voucher, families can identify quality housing anywhere in the city of Atlanta with the assurance that they will not have to pay more than 30 percent of their adjusted income towards their rent. Families may also use their Housing Choice voucher to move outside the city limits of Atlanta after their first year on the program.

Property owners/landlords of single family homes and multifamily condominiums and apartments manage the properties and enter into landlord/tenant relationships with the families.

AHA's Housing Choice Voucher Program is administered by AHA's Customer Services Group.

WAITING LIST:

Generally, a family interested in participating in Housing Choice must apply to AHA when the waiting list is open and applications are being accepted. AHA must give public notice of when the waiting list will open and where applications will be taken. AHA advertises the notice in local newspapers, radio spots, at social service agencies, on this Web page, and in other locations available to applicants.

AHA's Housing Choice waiting list is presently closed.

The most recent opening of the Housing Choice Voucher Program Waiting closed on March 27, 2017. AHA is not accepting any additional pre-applications.
