University Center Urban Renewal photographs. -- 1965-circa 1970 and undated. -- 0.24 Cubic feet (Housed alphabetically with Individual Housing Projects--small collections)

Scope and Content

The collection consists of photographs relevant to the University Center urban renewal project.

HISTORICAL NOTE:

University Center entered execution June 1960 covering 356.2 acres at a net cost of $7 million. Redevelopment included expansion of six predominately African-American educational institutions. Its primary objective was maintaining and expanding housing, with 1800 units rehabilitated and 419 new dwelling units built with 300 for low and moderate income families. Land use value doubled after redevelopment. The project officially closed September 22, 1972.
