Scope and Content

The collection consists of records related to Rod Solomon and his activities as Executive Director of Atlanta Housing.

BIOGRAPHY:

A graduate of Harvard Law School, Rod Solomon joined Atlanta Housing as its Chief Operating Officer and Deputy Executive Director and Acting Executive Director between the years of 1993-1994. Prior to joining Atlanta Housing, Solomon gained national recognition for the 12 years in which he served the Boston Housing Authority. After leaving Atlanta Housing, Solomon completed an eight-year tenure with HUD where he served as Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy during a period when the federal government's commitment to its massive public housing stock and Section 8 voucher program underwent a thorough overhaul. During these years (1994-2003), HUD substantially revised the legislation governing the public housing and Section 8 housing voucher programs.
