OUR PORTABILITY PROCESS

Bring Your Subsidy With You

According to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), “portability” is the process through which a family is able to transfer or “port” their rental subsidy when they relocate to an area outside of the jurisdiction of the housing authority that originally issued a voucher to them. The following is the process for porting to Atlanta Housing:

To be considered eligible to port in to AH’s jurisdiction, Port Applicants must:

- Meet all AH eligibility requirements
- Receive approval from the Initial Public Housing Authority (IPHA)
- Ensure that a complete inbound Port Package is received from the IPHA
- Meet the Work/Program Requirement as applicable

ATLANTA HOUSING ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

INITIAL ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must meet several criteria to be eligible for assistance:

- Income Limits Requirement: The Applicant household or individual must meet income requirements which are published and updated annually by HUD.
- At least one household member must be a United States citizen or an eligible immigrant.
- Each household must have a Social Security Number or be able to verify that one has been applied for.
- Meet AH's criminal background screening criteria.
- Comply with AH's Work/Program Participation Requirement.

WORK REQUIREMENT

As a condition of receiving the housing subsidy, households must meet the Work/Program Requirement where:

One non-elderly (18 to 61 years old), non-disabled adult household member must maintain continuous full-time employment (at least 20 hours per week)

AND

All other non-elderly, non-disabled household members must also maintain employment with a minimum of 20 hours per week or participate in a combination of school, job-training and/or part-time employment for a minimum of 20 hours per week.

*Zip codes 30316, 30317, 30331 and 30354 may cross city lines. The landlord must pay taxes in the city of Atlanta for their property to be serviced by Atlanta Housing.

OUR JURISDICTION

Atlanta is a large metropolitan area with many surrounding suburbs, cities and counties. As you search for a home, it is important to know the difference between properties within our service area (or "jurisdiction") and properties that may be serviced by other nearby housing authorities.

Our service area is within the Atlanta city limits and the area within ten miles of the territorial boundaries. Otherwise that area is serviced by another housing authority. The jurisdiction we serve is most easily determined by property taxes paid to the City of Atlanta.
