I. PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. The Parties to this Voluntary Compliance Agreement (“Agreement” or “VCA”) are the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD” or the “Department”) and The Housing Authority of the City of Atlanta, Georgia (“Atlanta Housing,” “AH” or “Recipient”).
2. Recipient is a Public Housing Agency and designated Moving to Work (“MTW”) agency that owns, operates, and funds directly or through contractual, joint ownership, or other legal arrangements public housing facilities, multi-family properties, and has oversight of the public housing and individual units through its HomeFlex program, and provides individualized rent subsidy for families through its Housing Choice Voucher program. Atlanta Housing is the recipient of public housing operating and capital funds from HUD’s Office of Public and Indian Housing (“PIH”) and Project-Based Vouchers (“PBV”) from HUD’s Section 8 Office. Recipient includes any officers, directors, employees, successors, assigns, or subrecipients specifically covered under the scope of 24 C.F.R. § 8.3. Atlanta Housing is a recipient of federal financial assistance from HUD, as defined at 24 C.F.R. § 8.3, and is subject to the provisions of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (“Section 504”). Atlanta Housing is also a public entity subject to the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”), and its implementing regulations, 28 C.F.R. part 35. Compliance with these nondiscrimination requirements is a condition of Atlanta Housing’s receipt of Federal financial assistance from HUD. 24 C.F.R. § 5.105(a).

II. BACKGROUND

3. This Agreement arises from a limited compliance review that was conducted by HUD’s Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (“FHEO”) under 24 C.F.R. § 8.56. The compliance review commenced on November 4, 2020, and was limited to the review of policies, procedures, and practices related to reasonable accommodations/reasonable modifications between January 1, 2018, and September 30, 2020, at 60 properties where Atlanta Housing provides some level of subsidy to the property or residents, which represents 54% of Atlanta Housing’s total portfolio. HUD conducted 327 interviews with disabled tenants, which HUD FHEO has determined represents an estimated 14% of identified tenants with disabilities who reside at properties where Atlanta Housing provides some level of subsidy to the property or residents. As part of FHEO’s compliance review, HUD served twenty-seven (27) requests for documents on Atlanta Housing regarding reasonable accommodation/modification information. Atlanta Housing provided documents and information to HUD FHEO pursuant to those requests for documents. Twenty-six (26) requests for information were completed by property management staff at properties where Atlanta Housing provides some level of subsidy to the property or residents. FHEO also conducted interviews with staff at Atlanta Housing.

Atlanta Housing is alleged to have violated Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and its implementing regulations, 24 C.F.R. part 8, and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and its implementing regulations, 28 C.F.R. part 35.

4. HUD conducted an investigation and issued a Letter of Findings on August 13, 2021 (the "LOF"), which found that between January 1, 2018, and September 30, 2020, Atlanta Housing did not execute proper monitoring and oversight of the handling of reasonable accommodation/modification requests in its operations or by its third-party owners and management companies. HUD also found numerous valid reasonable accommodation/modification requests that were denied, unjustifiably or unreasonably delayed, lost, ignored, or otherwise improperly documented. Specifically, HUD found that at one AH-owned property and eleven (11) properties owned and managed by third parties where Atlanta Housing provides some level of subsidy to the property or residents, fifteen (15) reasonable accommodation/reasonable modification requests were not effectuated in violation of Section 504 and Title II of the ADA. Additionally, HUD's investigation also found that Atlanta Housing failed to ensure proper recordkeeping in violation of 24 CFR 8.55(b) because Atlanta Housing was unable to provide the disability status of tenants in its assisted properties and it failed to collect information pertaining to Section 504 compliance from its third-party owners.
5. The Parties enter into this Agreement to voluntarily resolve the findings identified in the LOF and the Letter of Determination dated November 17, 2021 (the LOD). See 24 C.F.R. § 8.56(j) [and 28 C.F.R. § 35.173]. Atlanta Housing enters into this Agreement for settlement purposes only, and neither the execution of this Agreement, its terms, nor any action taken under this Agreement shall be construed as (i) an admission by Atlanta Housing or any of the third party owners or managers of properties where Atlanta Housing provides some level of subsidy to the property or residents of any fault or wrongdoing or any violation of Federal law, (ii) any admission or agreement with HUD FHEO's findings identified in the LOF or LOD. In order to resolve HUD Case Number(s) 04-21-R001-4 and 04-21-R005-D, Atlanta Housing agrees to provide the relief specified herein, including establishment of a Relief Fund in the amount of up to Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000).

C. ATLANTA HOUSING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The following affirmative steps shall be taken with regard to Atlanta Housing's policies and procedures governing the management of AH-owned and AH-assisted Properties.

17. Approval of Reasonable Accommodation Policies for AH-assisted Properties: Within one hundred eighty (180) days after the Effective Date, Atlanta Housing will review all reasonable accommodation policies at AH-assisted Properties to determine if they are substantially equivalent and comply with the fair housing and nondiscrimination requirements of Section 504, Title II of the ADA, and the Fair Housing Act. If a policy is found to be in compliance, Atlanta Housing will document the approval of the policy, issue an approval letter to the third-party manager at such AH-assisted Property, and submit evidence to HUD FHEO, to include a copy of the relevant policy and all approval documentation with all necessary signatures. If Atlanta Housing determines that the policy of an AH-assisted Property does not comply or is not substantially equivalent, Atlanta Housing will issue a disapproval letter, and the subject AH-assisted Property will have ninety (90) days to rectify and revise the policy. Atlanta Housing must submit to the Department a summary report of all reviewed and approved policies within two hundred and ten (210) days after the Effective Date, and a supplemental summary report, if applicable, of any outstanding policy reviews within three hundred (300) days after the Effective Date. If at any time in the future an AH-assisted Property notifies Atlanta Housing either through the revised Business Process Review process, or independently, that the policies have changed, Atlanta Housing will conduct the same review process.
18. Standardized Reasonable Accommodation Log: Within one hundred twenty (120) days of the Effective Date, Atlanta Housing shall develop and disseminate a standardized Reasonable Accommodation Log and require each property within the Atlanta Housing portfolio (AH-owned Properties and AH-assisted Properties) to collect information related to each Reasonable Accommodation/Modification request made by or on behalf of applicants and tenants, regardless of whether the request is made verbally, on a standardized form, or via any other mode of communication, to be used across all AH-owned Properties and AH-assisted Properties regardless of the property owner or management agent. The Reasonable Accommodation Log will include, at a minimum, the following information for Reasonable Accommodation/Modification requests, including transfer requests and requests to rent or reside in an accessible housing unit:

- a. Name of requester, current address and unit number, building number, phone number and email address;
- b. Description of the request;
- c. Whether the request was made verbally or in writing;
- d. For disability transfer requests, the size of the unit requested and whether the request is for an accessible unit or a transfer to a different unit;
- e. Date of the request;
- f. Whether the request was approved or denied in whole or in part, or if an alternate accommodation/modification was offered;
- g. If denied, stated justification for denial;
- h. Anticipated date for fulfillment of the request, if granted;
- i. Date that the accommodation or modification was provided or completed; and
- j. Pending and final appeals/grievances of denied or delayed Reasonable Accommodation/Modification requests, including the date of the appeal/grievance, the date of the final decision, and the final outcome.

Once Atlanta Housing implements the standardized Reasonable Accommodation Log, throughout the term of this Agreement, the log must be used and maintained with current, accurate, and up-to-date information. The Reasonable Accommodation Log may be amended, from time to time, provided it maintains all of the information required above.

19. Monthly Submission of Standardized Reasonable Accommodation Log: Within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the Effective Date, Atlanta Housing will notify all property owners and management agents at AH-owned Properties and AH-assisted Properties that the new standardized Reasonable Accommodation Log must be uploaded to the central portal on a monthly basis. Atlanta Housing will communicate with its partners that the submission is mandatory and will be monitored by Atlanta Housing staff.

- a. If a property has not submitted the Accommodation Log by the 10th of each month, a staff member at Atlanta Housing will contact the property manager or necessary point of contact and request the property rectify the issue within ten (10) business days.
- b. All properties must begin the monthly submission no later than one hundred eighty (180) days after the Effective Date.

20. Reasonable Accommodation/Modification Grievance Policy for AH-assisted Properties: Within ninety (90) days after the Effective Date, Atlanta Housing shall draft and submit to the Department for approval a grievance policy that allows tenants or applicants to Atlanta Housing's housing programs at AH-assisted Properties who have been denied a reasonable accommodation/modification to request a meeting with the Atlanta Housing Section 504 Coordinator or designee to discuss the validity of the denial and potential solutions. Said policy shall be deemed approved if FHEO does not object within thirty (30) days of submission. Any comments or requests for changes by the Department will be completed by Atlanta Housing within 30 days of notification. Atlanta Housing may allow any necessary staff to attend the meeting and must allow any authorized representative of the applicant or tenant to attend the meeting. Atlanta Housing will document that the meeting has taken place. The results of the meeting will be communicated to the applicant, and corresponding third party manager for resolution, if applicable, consistent with this Agreement. For the health and safety of applicants, residents, and staff, or for the efficiency, logistics, or speed of the process, Atlanta Housing may require any meetings required by this Agreement to be attended virtually, telephonically, or in-person.

D. ATLANTA HOUSING MONITORING AND OVERSIGHT

21. Internal Monthly Audit of Reasonable Accommodation Logs: One-hundred and twenty (120) days after the Effective Date, Atlanta Housing shall begin a monthly audit of the submission of standardized reasonable accommodation logs outlined in this Agreement. Atlanta Housing will audit 5% - 10% of logs at AH-owned Properties and AH-assisted Properties each month. The audit will consist of:
- a. Determining if a property properly submitted the log to the central portal;
 - b. Verifying that information was accurately recorded in the log;

- c. Seeking to contact (by phone or email) a sample of tenants who have made reasonable accommodation requests to determine-, with the tenant's consent, if the information on the log is an accurate portrayal of the original request; and
 - d. Providing technical assistance to property management staff if Atlanta Housing determines that an issue is present.
22. Revision to Business Process Review and Enforcement: Within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the Effective Date, Atlanta Housing shall make the following changes in the administration and application of the Business Process Review ("BPR") and notify management at AH-owned Properties and AH-assisted Properties of the required changes. The revisions to the BPR must be submitted to FHED for review and approval.
- a. Atlanta Housing will develop additional questions for the BPR that seek to determine if staff are implementing reasonable accommodation/modification procedures correctly, timely, and in compliance with federal nondiscrimination requirements.
 - b. All BPR reviews will require review by appropriate members of Atlanta Housing's Asset Management team of the property's compliance with (1) Reasonable Accommodation/Modification log, (2) UFAS Transfer List, (3) UFAS Waiting List, and (4) UFAS Occupancy Report with related need. The components listed must be reviewed at every audit regardless of prior performance ratings of the property. The VCA Administrator and Atlanta Housing's Deputy Chief Real Estate Officer, or her designee, will be directly responsible for incorporating the changes to the BPR and will ensure appropriate training of reviewing staff on the new protocols.
 - c. Atlanta Housing shall revise the BPR Audit to require management at AH-owned Properties and AH-assisted Properties to submit information regarding any fair housing, civil rights, or accessibility related complaint, investigation, or litigation to Atlanta Housing for review.
 - d. Atlanta Housing shall revise the BPR Audit and develop additional questions that require the analyst to review the reasonable accommodation/modification and transfer policy and question staff or management if any changes have been made to the policy. If, through the review, it has been determined a change or revision has been made, the Atlanta Housing staff member must report it on the BPR and note on the report that a review by Atlanta Housing is needed to ensure the policy meets federal regulations and requirements. Atlanta Housing must review and issue a recommendation within ninety (90) days of completion of the BPR Report.
 - e. Atlanta Housing will develop explicit follow-up protocols if a property is found as deficient in complying with the questions and standards set out in the BPR. The protocols will include meeting(s) with regional managers and/or regional fair housing professionals of the property with potential escalation to management's executive team member(s) and will require the property to take actions to rectify the issues reported and submit evidence of compliance within sixty (60) days of the BPR Report date. Atlanta Housing will develop what remedial actions will be taken if the property fails to come into compliance and share those actions with HUD.

- f. Atlanta Housing will retain the outcomes of the assessments of reasonable accommodation/modification logs, BPRs, enforcement actions, and other related reviews, and submit to the Department a quarterly summary report. HUD FHEO shall respond to the report within sixty (60) days regarding any concerns.

E. TENANT EDUCATION CAMPAIGN

23. Tenant Notice of Reasonable Accommodation Rights: Within one hundred eighty (180) days of the Effective Date, Atlanta Housing shall develop, through partnership with management at AH-assisted Properties and AH-owned Properties, a written notice for notifying and educating all tenants on their rights under the Fair Housing Act and how to request a reasonable accommodation/modification or an appeal of a previous denial. The notice will provide: (i) contact information for the specific third-party owner/manager reasonable accommodation professionals along with Atlanta Housing reasonable accommodation professionals; (ii) instructions on how to make reasonable accommodation requests; (iii) notice of non-retaliation against residents for making reasonable accommodation requests and how to contact HUD FHEO regarding any retaliation; and (iv) what to do if there are questions as to any pending requests.

Within two hundred and ten (210) days from the Effective Date, the VCA Administrator will submit a report to the Department with a summary of properties that have completed the tenant notice of Reasonable Accommodation rights and include (1) total number of tenants living at the property and (2) list of staff who participated in the campaign.

24. Relief Fund Outreach: Within ninety (90) calendar days of the Effective Date, Atlanta Housing shall develop a process to notify all individuals on the Tenant List about their right to request review surrounding an existing denied or delayed reasonable accommodation/modification request with the Independent Administrator.

If the case file is incomplete, the Department reserves the right to contact the tenant and request additional information. Upon completion of the Department's review, FHEO will develop a list of Injured Parties that will specify the final payment amount each Injured Party on the Compensation List shall receive from the Relief Fund and provide such information to the Independent Administrator and Atlanta Housing. The Department may address any concerns outside of the forty-five (45) day window.

46. Resolution of Reasonable Accommodations: Within the final execution of this Agreement, the Department will submit to Atlanta Housing, the VCA Administrator, and the Independent Administrator, the Aggrieved Parties List, which indicates tenants that the Department has determined to have a reasonable accommodation/modification request that was denied, delayed, or ignored unjustifiably between January 1, 2018, and the effective date of this Agreement. Aggrieved Parties if such reasonable accommodation or modification has not otherwise already been completed.

47. At the end of the thirty (30) day period stated above, Atlanta Housing must submit to the Department verification that each reasonable accommodation/modification request has been approved and completed. If Atlanta Housing or a third-party property manager encounters a delay that is outside of their control in completing the reasonable accommodation/modification request, Atlanta Housing will submit documentation and justification for the delay with an estimated date of completion.
48. Identification of Additional Injured Parties: When the Department submits the Compensation List to the Independent Administrator and Atlanta Housing, the list will include the reasonable accommodation/modification that has been unduly or unreasonably delayed, ignored, or denied. At the end of the sixty (60) day period stated above, Atlanta Housing must submit to the Department verification that each accommodation/modification request has been approved and completed. If Atlanta Housing encounters a delay that is outside of their control in completing the accommodation/modification request, Atlanta Housing will submit documentation and justification for the delay with an estimated date of completion.
49. Atlanta Housing and the third-party owner-entities and property management agents of AH-assisted Properties still reserve the right to deny requests that does not demonstrate a nexus between the stated disability and the requested accommodation or if the request would result in a financial hardship and administrative burden, or fundamental alteration of operations. If it has been determined that this is the justification for the denial, the parties involved must submit evidence of the financial hardship and administrative burden, or fundamental alteration, and the alternative accommodation/modification offered to the tenant. If the Department determines the request for review is a valid reasonable accommodation and includes a disability-related need, the accommodation will be fulfilled by Atlanta Housing as outlined in paragraph 49.

Appendix C

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION RIGHT TO REVIEW PROCESS

Letter to Tenants at AH-owned Properties and AH-assisted Properties

You are receiving this letter from Atlanta Housing because you are a current resident at a property that is owned or assisted by Atlanta Housing.

Atlanta Housing is working towards the development of a process for tenants with disabilities to request a review of reasonable accommodation determinations. Part of this process includes the review of an unfulfilled accommodation request by any tenant with a disability or made on behalf of any tenant with a disability that was made between the dates of January 1, 2018 and [DATE OF AGREEMENT].

HUD's definition of an individual or person with a disability is as follows:

“An individual who as a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities such as caring for oneself, manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, or learning; has a record of such impairment; or is regarded as having such an impairment.”

HUD's definition of a reasonable accommodation is as follows:

“A change, modification, exception, alteration, or adaptation in a policy, procedure, practice, program, service, activity, facility, or dwelling unit that may be necessary to provide an individual with a disability an equal opportunity to (1) use and enjoy a dwelling, including public and common use areas of a development and/or (2) participate in, or benefit from, a program (housing or non-housing), service, or activity.”

Common examples of Reasonable Accommodation requests are:

- Grab bars
- Unit transfers due to a disability
- Designated accessible parking space
- Live-in aid
- Exemption from mandatory work requirements due to a disability

If you believe that you have made a request that has not been fulfilled by the property management staff between January 1, 2018 and [AGREEMENT DATE], you are encouraged to contact the Independent Administrator at the contact information below. If you are unsure if you qualify as a person with a disability or of the status of your request, the Department encourages you to contact the Independent Administrator who will be able to identify if you qualify for a review.

Tenant Acknowledgment of Fraud Liability: Consistent with Title 18, Section 1001 of the U.S. Code, if it is found that a tenant has intentionally, wrongfully, or falsely made statements in support of a claim for a reasonable accommodation/modification request, the tenant shall be subject to a lease violation that may include potential adverse actions up to and including termination of the tenant's lease.

Tenant Acknowledgment of Non-Retaliation: Through this process of your right to review of the accommodation request, please know that all staff at AH-owned Properties and AH-assisted Properties are prohibited from retaliating against, intimidating, and coercing tenants who make accommodation/modification requests or exercise their fair housing rights. You have a right to file a complaint with HUD if you believe staff are currently retaliating against you or you are experiencing other prohibited conduct including coercion and intimidation.

If you do not wish to file for a right to review through this process, you still retain your right to file a fair housing complaint if you believe you have been discriminated against regarding your disability or the denial of a reasonable accommodation within 180 days of the event.
